TASTE OF BATH

This bespoke collection of artisan products were all handmade within 10 miles of the City of Bath.

Bath Soft Cheese

Kelston 4 miles west of Bath, made by Hugh Padfield & team. A runny & gooey almost brie like consistency with a creamy, mushroom and lemony taste.

Bath Blue Cheese

Kelston 4 miles west of Bath, made by Hugh Padfield & team. A creamy, smooth blue cheese with evenly-spaced blue veins and a characteristic clean aroma.

Wyfe of Bath

Kelston 4 miles west of Bath, made by Hugh Padfield & team. A vegetarian, Gouda style cheese with a firm rind & nutty, creamy, buttery centre.

Bath Oliver Biscuits

Invented in Jane Austen's era in Georgian Bath. A crisp, light biscuit which goes great with cheese.

Red Wine & Blue Cheese Pokers

Found especially for you: made 23 miles from Bath (we made an exception for you) Andy raise their own pigs and James creates this amazing charcuterie! A perfect combination of red wine, blue cheese and salami. Made using only fresh ingredients (no nasty blue cheese powders) and hung to dry to the point that they deliver a strong bite.

Pickle Lily

Made by Stephanie Anderson and team in Bradford on Avon, 8 miles south east of Bath. A mild mustard piccalilli: a veritable feast of fresh veggies... perfect for a Saturday lunch!

Hot Date Chutney

Made by Stephanie Anderson and team in Bradford on Avon, 8 miles south east of Bath. A smooth apple & date chutney with a hint of curry spice, perfect in a sandwich or with cheese.
