TASTE OF BATH

This bespoke collection of artisan products were all handmade within 10 miles of the City of Bath.

Pistachio Provenance

Curated by Jane in Bradford on Avon, 8 miles south east of Bath: she has a real passion for fairtrade Greek pistachios. Fabulous roasted in shell pistachios, the pistachio nut has a delicate seed coat of deep purple pink hues which protects the lime green kernel.

Pickle Lily

Made by Stephanie Anderson and team in Bradford on Avon, 8 miles south east of Bath. A mild mustard piccalilli: a veritable feast of fresh veggies... perfect for a Saturday lunch!

Foraged Elderberry & Bramble Jam

Made by Chris after foraging around her in Keynsham, 8 miles west of Bath. A really fruity, full bodied & rich berry flavoured jam; it's not too sweet and has a lovely smooth texture.

Breakfast Tea

Created by the wizards of fresh blends 'Tea Huggers' in Combe Down, Bath. This classic breakfast tea is made from the best quality Indian Assam and Sri Lankan black tea, making a tea that packs a punch. Using the best whole-leaf tea to make every cup strong and full of flavour.

Hot Chocolate

Handmade by Nick in his chocolate workshop in Newton St Loe, 2 miles west of Bath. A rich and indulgent hot chocolate, not too sweet and not too dark.

Milk Chocolate with Pistachios & Cinnamon

Handmade by Nick in his chocolate workshop in Newton St Loe, 2 miles west of Bath. A milk chocolate made from Rainforest Alliance certified Trinitario beans with a roasted cocoa aroma and a rich, creamy body with notes of olive and clove. We add Californian pistachios and organic cinnamon from Sri Lanka.

Honey Midford Cider

Pressed in Midford by 2nd generation cider maker Gerard Krow, 3 miles south of Bath. A medium cider with sparkle.
