TASTE OF BATH

This bespoke collection of artisan products were all handmade within 10 miles of the City of Bath.

Bath Soft Cheese

Kelston 4 miles west of Bath, made by Hugh Padfield & team. A runny & gooey almost brie like consistency with a creamy, mushroom and lemony taste.

Bath Oliver Biscuits

Invented in Jane Austen's era in Georgian Bath.
A crisp, light biscuit which goes great with cheese.

Hot Date Chutney

Made by Stephanie Anderson and team in Bradford on Avon, 8 miles south east of Bath. A smooth apple & date chutney with a hint of curry spice, perfect in a sandwich or with cheese.

Raspberry & Earl Grey Jam

Made by Della and her team 5 miles west of Bath, an exquisite jam with an intense raspberry flavour, with subtle notes of earl grey tea.

Breakfast Tea

Created by the wizards of fresh blends 'Tea Huggers' in Combe Down, Bath. This classic breakfast tea is made from the best quality Indian Assam and Sri Lankan black tea, making a tea that packs a punch. Using the best whole-leaf tea to make every cup strong and full of flavour.

Round Hill Roasted Coffee

Roasted by Eddie and his team in Radstock 10 miles to the south of Bath. This coffee has a prominent cloudy apple flavour with dried fruits throughout, finishing on a satisfyingly nutty pecan note.

Honey Midford Cider

Pressed in Midford by 2nd generation cider maker Gerard Krow, 3 miles south of Bath.
A medium cider with sparkle.

Persuasion Pale Ale

Electric Bear was founded by Chris and Jacky Lewis in 2015, creating an innovative brewery 2 miles west of Bath. This is a well-balanced, crisp, fruity, moreish session golden ale: Light gold colour, white head, and honey, citrus and summer fruits on the nose.
